INTRODUCTION

"As Larva flies over the Earth to the Moon!"

Welcome to Larva To Moon. A meme coin project inspired by the adventurous spirit of a beloved Larva character.

We combine Larva's delightful sensibility with innovative cryptocurrency technology to deliver real rewards and fun beyond just laughter.

Our project provides rewards through games and provides both fun and usefulness through an AI chatbot service that contains Larva's emotions.

Let's
Fly To Moon

LEGEND OF "Larva To Moon"

Yellow and Red were spending some time in a warehouse one day playing around. Meanwhile, Black suddenly appears and traps them in a huge container, saying, "I'll test you to see if you're ready to survive on the moon!"

In this way, the container is launched on a moon-bound rocket. Inside the rocket, the two Larva lose their gravity and struggle to survive in floating objects.

After finally arriving on the moon, Larva is shocked by an unexpected sight. Instead of having a yellow surface, there was a "space marketplace" spread out with lots of robots and alien life. "Welcome to the moon! Everything is tradeable here, but I need the moon's common currency, $Larva."

While collecting $LARVA, Larva discovers that the coin is not just a means of trading, but a key to boosting the moon's energy and technology. "$Larva is a collection of energy that powers everything on the moon. Not only transactions, but it's also necessary to upgrade your exploration gear or access hidden space on Mars. Larva uses $LARVA to upgrade their own exploration gear and begin exploring the moon's secret sites. After reaching the hidden underworld, Larva discovers the moon's legendary "meta-mining field." You get an extra $LARVA here, and a chance to participate in the "Space DAO," which is the true center of the moon's ecosystem."

FAQ

What is the $LARVA token?

The $LARVA is a meme coin that utilizes the IP of the globally popular LARVA animation characters. The $LARVA ecosystem revolves around RED and YELLOW, the LARVA characters, reaching the moon and mining $LARVA as the currency used on the moon. $LARVA serves as the sole currency within the LARVA To Moon ecosystem.

The LARVA ecosystem combines DAO, P2E games, and meme elements, enabling $LARVA holders to participate in the project's future decisions through a decentralized DAO system. Token holders can vote on key decisions and receive appropriate rewards for their participation. The future of the LARVA ecosystem is in your hands. Join this decentralized DAO ecosystem today!

What are the benefits during the presale period?

Early participants in the presale are designed to receive substantial rewards simply by purchasing tokens and participating in LARVA staking. Over the 2-year staking period, participants can achieve significant returns, ensuring massive benefits just by joining the presale. Additionally, exclusive events will be launched for presale participants

How can I participate in the presale?

To purchase $LARVA, create an Ethereum wallet, select either ETH, BNB or USDT, enter the desired amount, and complete the purchase. Credit card payments are also supported.
